FINE BRONX CHURCH STARTED

MR. MOONEY LAYS THE CORNERSTONE OF ST. RITA'S.

A New Edifice for the Italian Colony There—President Haffen Pays Tribute to Their Thrift and Industry—Thousands Fill Even the Roofs at the Ceremony.

Vicar-General Mooney officiated at the laying of the cornerstone of St. Rita's Church at 14th street and College avenue in the Bronx yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Mr. Mooney was attended by the Rev. Dr. D. J. McMahon of the Epiphany Church, the Rev. Geo. T. Donlon, of St. Jerome's Church, and the Rev. Carlo Ferrina, pastor of the new church. The school children and all the church societies paraded to the church from the Harlem River bridge, three bands playing national airs. Five thousand persons, mostly parishioners of St. Rita's, attended the ceremonies. With Mr. Mooney and the clergy were Borough President Haffen, State Senator Hawkins and Alderman Dougherty.

After Mr. Mooney had blessed and laid the corner stone the Rev. Dr. McMahon addressed the gathering, which filled even the windows and roofs of neighboring houses. Dr. McMahon said in part: "Fifteen years ago the Bronx had but eight Catholic churches. To-day she has twenty-nine. Nine priests were then in the Bronx. To-day she has thirty. The growth of the Italian colony in the Bronx has a round hundred priests. This speaks well for the flourishing condition of men and women in this colony, and while I have left you, not of my own free will, but called by duty still, I will say in having had a hand in the laying of this religious growth of the Bronx."

The Rev. Santi Zuccaro made an address in Italian. Then came Borough President Haffen, who said in part: "I felt proud to-day when I saw for the first time the Irish flag marching with the Italian flag and all by our own efforts. It is gratifying to find that the intermingling of the two races is not only a fact, but a source of strength and happiness for the one cause of liberty and happiness for the other. For in this union of foreign nationalities for the cause of liberty and happiness we see the strength of the American people. The Roman Catholic Church has accomplished this great work in America and it is her constant teaching and instruction of the emigrants who come to our shores that has brought about such social and moral progress. I was told to take an Italian census in this borough some time ago. The result was that of the Italian people was that they were devoted entirely to music and wine growing, and of course the Italian Church in the Bronx. I learned differently, and in the last few years, since Italian immigration has become so important a factor that we now have over half a million Italians. I find that they make up a large part of the population of the Bronx. Here in the Bronx they have made much of the prosperity of the borough. This church is a symbol of the Italian people and we should feel proud that the day has arrived when we can boast of such a fine church and well to do colony of good Italian citizens."

In 1914 we had $5,000,000 people here with an assessed valuation of $22,000,000. To-day we have 280,000 people and an assessed valuation of $100,000,000. The Italian people have aided much in this increase. With such a union of nationalities as is seen here today there is no limit to the strength of our city and our country."

Senator Hawkins spoke and Alderman Dougherty talked of the prosperity and growth of his ward, which now has a 200,000 Italian church as evidence thereof.

PRIESTS' RETREAT BEGINS.

Half of Those in the Archdiocese at Dunwoodie—Their Life There.

The annual retreat of the Archdiocese of New York opens this morning at 9 o'clock at St. Joseph's Seminary, Dunwoodie, the Archdiocese, presiding.

The priests in retreat—half of them in the diocese—rise at 5:30 o'clock in the morning. From 6 to 7 o'clock is spent in meditation. At 7 o'clock low mass is said by the Archbishop. Breakfast is at 7:30 o'clock and the office is read aloud. Then there is meditation from 10 o'clock till 11 o'clock, consisting of the reading of passages from the Bible and extracts from the lives of the saints. Dinner is at 12:30 o'clock. Reading the rosary and the office of the Mass. The summer office begins at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. A spiritual conference is held at 4 o'clock. The rest of the vesper service is at 4 o'clock. At 7 o'clock, after which follow night prayers and retirement at 9 o'clock.

None of the priests say mass during the retreat. Complete silence is maintained. The retreat will close with Friday evening's exercises, which end by all the priests going to confession and receiving the communion from the Archbishop's own hands on Saturday morning after low mass. At 7 o'clock all the priests will return to their parishes to allow the remaining half to go into retreat in the following week.

PARISH DIVISION POSTPONED.

For a Year, at Least, the Holy Name and Holy Trinity Churches Will Remain.

The division into equal parts of the Holy Name of Jesus, on the north-west corner of Amsterdam avenue and Ninety-sixth street, and Holy Trinity Church, at 208-211 West Eighty-second street, between Broadway and Amsterdam avenue, has been deferred for another year. The Archbishop has had it in mind for a year to establish a new parish from the overflow of these two parishes.

The Rev. John J. Keane of Holy Name Church is now building a large parochial school, and as this additional expense is rather heavy it has been mutually agreed not to weaken the parish by a division of it at present. The Rev. W. J. Costelloe of Holy Trinity Church has likewise had heavy expense in the building up of his new church.

While the pastoral work in these two parishes has been very onerous, the pastors are willing to bear with it a little longer in order to strengthen financially the work already begun and still incomplete.

Leaves Pulpit for Syracuse University.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., June 26.—Dr. Edward Lee Earp, who has been pastor of Grace Methodist Episcopal Church in this city for the past two years, announced to his congregation to-day that he had accepted the position of professor of sociology in the University of Syracuse. He is asked to be relieved of his pastorate on Aug. 1.

JAPS LEAVING HAWAII.

Thousands Coming to California—Mikado's Government Doesn't Like It.

HONOLULU, June 14.—Thousands of Japanese are emigrating from Hawaii to California, and the regular steamers have not sufficient accommodations to carry all who wish to go. The inadequacy of transportation facilities has resulted in a great deal of dissatisfaction among the Japanese, and steps are being taken to charter a special steamer to carry them to San Francisco. It is said that 2,500 Japanese are ready to leave this Territory for California as soon as transportation is provided.

Such a wholesale movement is greatly objected to on the part of the Japanese Government, but it is a natural consequence of the labor situation in Hawaii, said a prominent Japanese.

The situation as it is at present is that the Japanese desiring a booking must give notice six months ahead and also put up $50 as a safeguard to the steamship company in case they are held back at the other end.

A case you can check with safety and carry with pride.

A case made especially for us of far better material than the usual $5 case; white oak tanned leather on a stout steel frame, lined.

It's better because we've been selling better $5 suit cases so long that now we can buy and sell unusual quantities.

SWELTERING THROAT AT CONEY.

Offshore Breeze Sends Thousands Into the Sea and to Cooling Places.

Anything that suggested coolness was eagerly sought at Coney Island yesterday. The "Bewers of Paris" did an immense business. So did "Cooling in Switzerland," which the peripatetic Barker described as "a splendid in summer time." The reporter did not stop to confirm the slight ride portion of the Barker's remarks, but there is no doubt that it was summertime at Coney yesterday. Scarcely a breath of air stirred all day. Whatever breeze there was at times was of shore and consequently brought no relief to the sweltering thousands who went to the island to escape the heat of the city.

Yesterday was one of the biggest days, from the viewpoint of the island, in the history of the famous resort. Dreamland and Luna Park were jammed, and there was a crush wherever one went. The beach was packed and thousands went in bathing.

The local statisticians estimated the number for the day at not less than 300,000 and probably 500,000 turned back when half way to the resort because of the series of thunder showers that visited the place.

RUGS—Ancient and Modern

Hardwood floors in country houses need rugs. A collection of twenty-five Tabris and Kirmanshah, large sizes, at $450 from $650, at $475 from $650, at $600 from $850, at $500 from $750, at $1250 from $1850, at $1200 from $1750. Superb qualities, many in soft, light shades.

Oriental palaces, Tombs of Prophets, or the rif-raff of alleged consignments are not exploited here. Arabian Nights stories of rugs are told elsewhere. Just splendid rugs at one-third off. Many antiques.

American Rugs—twenty-five—9 x 12 feet:

Prices were $144 to $260

Prices are $100 to $200

But these are only selections from many popular interests in our Carpet Store. Third floor.

Quite Unusual Mattings

People who know will tell you that in our Carpet Store, you will find the largest and best selected stock of Mattings in New York. Here is a great incident:

Japanese Mattings of $10 quality to be sold at Five Dollars a roll. The value is the point. You can buy ordinary mattings at $5. They are trash—not worth fitting to your floor. But $10 goods at $5! That's another question. All because of a rattled importer. Think carefully. Maybe you are interested. Third floor.

Women's Hats

Styles up. Just out of the fingers of our artist milliners—white Chip Sailor Hats. Prices Down. Ten Dollar Hats at Five. Latest, best, half priced. That's all. Second floor, Broadway.

An Enormous Offering of Imported SHETLAND SHAWLS At HALF PRICE and Less

The importer was over-intoxicated with these shawls, and brought over too many. Small wonder—they would have tempted anybody.

He met our buyer when he was feeling like "the morning after," and he didn't care what the shawls had cost him.

We got the cleverest bargain we ever saw. So will you.

There are two hundred dozen shawls in the collection—an enormous quantity to have left on his hands—an enormous quantity for any store to buy.

But the shawls were new and handsome—all imported this present season. They were in beautiful designs and colorings. We knew that it would be easy enough to find twenty-four hundred women who would be glad to have them—who would come in a hurry to secure them—when we were able to offer them at half and a third of their regular prices.

The shawls are in white, black, light blue, pink, and combinations of white-and-blue and white-and-pink.

In the whole two hundred dozens, there are only two dozens worth as little as $1.25; and to offset this, there are three dozens of $8 shawls; and to-day's prices are

50c to $2.50 Each

Arranged in the five following groups:

$1.25 and $1.50 Shetland Shawls at 50c Each

$2 and $2.25 Shetland Shawls at 75c Each

$2.25 and $2.75 Shetland Shawls at $1 Each

$3 and $3.75 Shetland Shawls at $1.50 Each

$5 to $8 Shetland Shawls at $2.50 Each

Women who are going away for the Summer want these Shawls, of course. And dealers, who wish to replenish their stocks, will be allowed to buy, in reasonable quantities, because we have so many; and they would have to pay at least half as much more, at wholesale.

A Saving of Ten Dollars On MEN'S SERGE SUITS Made to Your Order

We secured a limited quantity of fine blue serge, at a very handsome concession; and by a little more price-paring, we are able to make up to measure about fifty Serge Suits, such as we regularly sell for $85, made to order, at

Twenty-five Dollars a Suit

These suits will be made up in best manner, with single-breasted sack coats, either half-lined, or lined through with black pongee silk. The vests will have pongee silk backs.

You will find few tailors who will give you suits of equal character for thirty-five dollars. Our price, until fifty orders are taken, is $25 a suit. Second floor, Fourth avenue.

Handsome Silk Shirt-Waist DRESSES

This is a collection of crisp, cool, handsome Summer Dresses, specially made up for us—spic-span-new, and yet worth a half more than their price to-day.

The style is particularly pretty—with plaited waist, trimmed with French knots. Skirts are made in gored style, with flaring plait on each gore. The entire dress is well finished. The silks are in plain black, and plain blue; or in pin-stripes and wider stripes of blue, brown and Oxford, and small checks, in black, blue and brown.

The suits would be excellent value at $15. To-day's price is $9.75 a suit.

We also offer to-day about fifty Taffeta Shirt-waist Suits from our own stock—in a variety of styles and colorings—previously valued at $15; now at $9.75 a suit. Second floor, Broadway.

Beautiful Woven Figured SILK MUSLINS At 25¢ a Yard, Worth 50¢

These are some of the handsomest silk-and-cotton fabrics of the season, in the neatest and most effective designs. We secured about twelve thousand yards, at just half price; and give you the entire benefit of our good fortune.

The fabric has the full lustre of all-silk goods. There are about thirty different designs, in which the figures are formed by the white silk wefts thrown up on the grounds of white, light blue, rose, pink and gray. There are hollow polka dots and rings, oblong dots with diamond figures between, and various other figures of little squares and dots. They are the very choicest patterns we could have picked to sell for fifty cents; and these are just half—25¢ a yard. Tenth street aisle.

A Summer Home Sale of Glass, Bric-a-Brac, China

All these things that you'll find displayed on the Main Aisle today have a distinct bearing on making the country house pleasant and comfortable for Summer occupancy, at small expense.

There are fine groups of Domestic Glassware, pretty pieces of Bric-a-Brac, Steins, Mugs, Fancy China Plates and other dishes of decorative as well as useful virtue, an array of Cut Glass, and so on.

TWO HURT IN PISTOL DUEL.

Haverstraw Negroes Sent Here, but They'll Be Shipped Back.

Two negroes, both suffering from pistol shot wounds, came from Haverstraw yesterday and were taken to St. Francis' Hospital. The hospital authorities had been asked by the telephone to take in the victim of an accident and had a Bellevue Hospital ambulance meet the men at the Grand Central station. When the nature of the men's injuries were ascertained the police were notified.

SHOT HIS SWEETHEART.

She Was an Accident—She Wants Him Punished, but Not Too Severely.

PATHEON, N. J., June 26.—Bertha Kienle, 18 years old, was shot by her lover, James Varner, of 28 Elm street, at 1:30 o'clock this morning, in the alleyway to her home, 133 Mill street. Varner says that the revolver he carries to protect himself when collecting for the American News Company dropped from his coat pocket and went off. That Varner left the girl to the care of her mother and that the girl's dress was burned by powder apparently disproves his statement. The nature of the wound also shows that the bullet did not come from below. The girl was taken to the hospital. She will recover.

In her statement to the police she says she wants Varner punished, but not too severely. She refused to make a complaint. Varner was arrested at his home shortly after the shooting. Friends who were near them say there was no quarrel.
